Farewell Messages from the Editors

Munawar Sawirudin (English Editor)

Today is the last day of the Hong Kong Inter-city Bridge Championships 2006, a lot of fantastic experience doing Bulletin this year, nice people we met, good players we watched and of course very friendly atmosphere we found at this Hong Kong Inter-city.

Appreciation to our contributors, the monitors and all the staff who help us to entertain you with this bulletin, special thanks to our layout editors and webmasters Mr. Tony Ling and Miss Beatrice Poon, who has done this bulletin layout very well, even though they are not bridge players.

Full of appreciations to Mr. Robert Zajac, Chairman of the organizing committee and all the members, to our Anthony Ching, Chief Tournament Director and all his staff, hope that we can always work together everywhere in the bridge activities.

Congratulations to all the winners of this Championship and for those who were not so lucky, there will be another Hong Kong Inter-city next year. For all our foreign guests, have a nice flight back home, see you in Hong Kong Inter-city 2007. Auf wiedersehen!

Song Zhao [宋召] (Chinese Editor)

“惜别与期待”

曲终人散，牌友们踏上了归程。相见时难别亦难，虽然我们离去，但我们带走了不只是比赛的记忆，还有对主办方绵绵厚意的感激之心。今年的香港城市赛，东道主做了精心的准备和完善的组织，短短的几天中，我们经历了一场桥牌盛会。感谢香港桥牌协会，也感谢所有的比赛组织者、工作人员和参与本次比赛的朋友。

咗咗再见，香港！让我们明年再相聚！我们相信，明年会更好！

Jun Cheng (Japanese Editor)

It is my pleasure to work on Inter-city Bridge Championships bulletins these days for the second time. I would like to sincerely thank HKCBA which grants me these chances; on the other hand I have to thank all bulletin readers as well. I am delighted to see Inter-city 2006 running very successfully by the organization of Mr Anthony Ching. Also, as the Japanese bulletin editor, I am greatly pleased to see that Mr Nakatani came to Hong Kong and share this time with us again despite his tight schedule. Although this year I cannot see lots of my Japanese friends here, I am looking forward to them in Japan very soon. Love.
